To whom it may concern

Letter of recommendation – Conbiz

When investing in foreign markets there is always the concern of managing the investment from afar, how I will be able to find an attractive property. When dealing with the Czech Republic this concern is intensified due to language and mentality challenges.

For these reasons, in order to invest in the Czech Republic I sought a professional firm to manage my investment and I found Conbiz, headed by Amos and Shauli.

I must admit that I have found considerable added value in my relationship with Conbiz.

I received excellent service throughout the process of purchasing the property, from the phase of locating properties based on clear criteria I had requested, locating essential professional service providers such as an agency that arranged for a mortgage under excellent terms, a lawyer who finalized the agreement, including registration of the property with the Czech land registry office.

The availability, personal treatment, advice, and experience offered by Amos, spared me a great deal of resources and money and gave me the feeling of having a real partner for my investment.

Thank you very much. I am confident that I will use the services of Conbiz in the future as well, for maintaining the property and for purchasing additional properties.

Sincerely yours,

L.
